SHAKE-UP ORDERED AT NAVAL ACADEMY

Changes Announced by Secretary Daniels Following Recent Investigation.

TO BECOME EFFECTIVE SEPT. 20, IT IS STATED

Assignment of New Department Heads Will Be Left to Rear Admiral Fullam's Successor.

A general shake-up at the Naval pend on advances in chemistry. Academy at Annapolis has been or dered by Secretary Daniels of the Navy Department, following the recent in vestigation of charges of "cribbing" and hazing at the academy. A genera reor-anization of the force of instructors has been made.

The heads of nearly all the depart ments have been changed, to take ef fect September 20. Most of the offi-

Those officers who have been there "Those officers who have been there less than two years have not been changed, except in the case of Commander F. A. Traut, who takes command of the battleship Wisconsin." Secretary Daniels declined to answer any questions as to the cause of this reorganization.

The changes are planned to take effect when Capt. Eberle, now commandant of the navy yard at Washington, succeeds to the superintendency of the Academy on the 20th instant, succeeding Rear Admiral Fullam, recently transferred to the comlam, recently transferred to the com-mand of the Pacific reserve fleet. These are the changes in the shake-up:

Changes in the Shake-Up.

Commander U. L. Nulton, in charge of the department of ordnance, will become commandant of midshipmen when Capt. Lloyd H. Chandler, now acting superintendent of the academy is detached. Commander C F Pres is detached. Commander C. F. Preston, English department, is ordered to command the battleship Missouri; Commander F. A. Traut, language department, to command the battleship Wisconsin; Commander H. B. Price, engineering department, to command the destroyer tender Melville, about to go into commission at Camden, N. J.; Commander J. P. Tompkins, electrical engineering department, to command engineering department, to command the battleship Ohio; Lieut. Commander G. Shackford, senior aid to the com-mandant, to the battleship Wyoming Lieut. M. E. Manley, aid to the super-intendent, to the staff of the com-

Besides these, Commanders Hilary Williams and Roger Williams, both on cruise, are detached, the former to become executive officer of the battleship Rhode Island and the latter to be navigator of the battleship New Jersey. The new department heads at the academy announced, their assignments being left to the new superintendent, are:

New Department Heads.

Commander H. H. Hough, gunboat Wilmington on the Asiatic station; Commander Ralph Earle, executive officer of battleship Arkansas; Commander W. T. Cluverius, gunboat Paducah; Commander G. F. Lincoln, gunboat Commander G. F. Lincoln, gunboat Dolphin; Commander H. H. Christy, battleship Kearsarge, who will be stationed on the station ship Reina Mercedes at Annapolis; Commander John Halligan, fleet engineer of the Atlantic fleet, who is to become head of the post-graduate department of the academy, and Lieut. Commander T. R. Kurtz, now assistant director of target practice.

Wickham.
Lieut. G. E. Baker is detached from the Academy for duty on the battle-ship Georgia, and Lleut. J. H. Schelling for duty on the battleship Utah.

COLLECTION OF D. C. FACTS IS NEARING COMPLETION

All Fiscal Relations Subcommittees Have Finished Work Except One. Meeting Tonight.

the office of its chairman, Henry B. F. Macfarland, in the Evans building, wil be held tonight to continue the preparation for the presentation of the facts before the joint select committee of Congress when it meets here October 20. All the members of the executive committee have not returned to Washington yet, but Chairman Macfarland has been in correspondence with them since the last meeting of the committee in July. Chairman Macfarland has procured from the Treasury Department, the Interior Department and the Department of Commerce additional facts which he will submit to the executive committee.

All the subcommittees have completed their work except that on assessment and taxation, John Joy Edson chairman, whose task was so great that it cannot be completed before the end of September.

Chairman Macfarland conferred today with Mr. Edson, Thomas Bradley, secretary of the committee, and A. M. Fisher, statistical expert, on the progress of the work, which he afterward said was very satisfactory.

The postponement of the opening of the hearing before the interior. Congress when it meets here October

The postponement of the opening the hearing before the joint select committee of Congress from September 20 to October 20 is gratifying to the executive committee, as it gives more time for the preparation of the facts in

CAPT. W. F. ENDRESS DEAD.

U. S. Army Officer Succumbs on Board Ship Bound From Panama. Capt, William F. Endress, Corps of Engineers, United States Army, died suddenly Tuesday evening from pneumonia on the steamship Allianca, on her way from Colon, Panama, to New York, where she is due tomorrow. A wireless message to that effect has been received by Adjt. Gen. McCain at the War Depart-by Adjt. Gen. McCain at the War Department.

Capt. Endress was a native of New York and was graduated from the United States Military Academy in June, 1995. Being one of the star graduates, he was assigned to the Engineer Corps. For more than a year past he has served with Company M, 3d Battslion of Engineers on the Panama Canal Zone. Prior to that he served a tour of duty at Washingth barracks, first with troops and later as electrical instructor at the Engineer School. His friends in this city were much shocked at the news of his death, as it was not known that he was ill. Capt. A. V. Barber of the Engineer corps at the War Department is arranging the details for the funeral of the Endress.

The former President's speech was made in the lobby of a hotel shortly after his arrival here from San Fran cisco in response to an address of welcome by the president of the Young Men's Republican Club of this city.

"The placing of the democratic party in power," he said, "and the adoption of policies to which the majority of voters are opposed, I think, startled many of the dissentient republicans into the conviction that whatever merits of the republican fight of 1912 it is time for them to resume their places in the republican army, and we all rejoice to welcome them back.

Neutrals' Will Less Respected.

"The will of neutrals is less respected in time of war. It is not, then, sufficient that they await the end of the conflict. Fo rthem passiveness has ceased to be a duty and energy has become the proper policy. They have a come the proper policy. They have a right to raise their voice against war because they are its victims. It is legitimate for them to unite their influences, because they are injured in common, but the hour has not come for that effort. Words, like spent bullets, would glance off the armor of belligerents without penetrating it, but armor finally becomes heavy even for the strongest arms.

"The first sign of that fatigue will not find Switzerland inattentive or hesitant. She will act in concert with other neutral governments, convinced as she neutral governments, convinced as sne is that the cause of peace is the cause of all. orrespondence of the Associated Press.

LONDON, September 1.-The Isle of Man, which has enjoyed home rule since ancient times, is in such an economic quandry that a proposal to ask the imperial government that the island be annexed to the county of Lan-cashire was recently considered in the house of keys, the legislative assembly of the island. The member who moved the resolution declared that the island faced "imminent starvation and bankruptcy owing to the bungling and incompetence of the present island administration."

The motion for annexation was formally seconded and two other members were in favor of it, but the proposition was eventually lost, and the island continues for the present under its own government.

The Isle of Man is one of the favorite resorts of thousands of Lancashire cotton workers and other factory employes, and is practically dependent on visitors, who pay a small poll tax toward the upkeep of piers and harbors. This year, however, the fast steamers have been withdrawn, and only one slow winter boat makes a trip daily. Many hotels and boarding houses are closed.

Three of the finest hotels shelter only one visitor each.

Robert L. Walls, a white man of Watauga county, was refused entrance to the Raleigh state prison to serve a term of three and a half years for mansiaughter because he was not accompanied by a sheriff or deputy. Walls telegraphed to Boone for the sheriff to come and get him in prison.
